

Not Always Easy

It is not always easy to tell the truth. There is no question, however, about its always being the right thing to do.

The object of Pabst advertising is to tell you the truth about

Pabst Blue Ribbon

The Beer of Quality

The truth is that Pabst Blue Ribbon has won the world's highest prizes for quality—is as rich in food values and as perfect as scientific methods and brewing skill can make it.

The truth is that Pabst Blue Ribbon has a smooth, agreeable flavor and a delightful aftertaste which distinguish it from all other beers.

SHAMROCKS ELECT OFFICERS

The Shamrock A. C. held a meeting yesterday afternoon to elect officers and discuss plans for the coming baseball season. The following were elected: John O'Connor, manager; D. Breen, captain; and J. Tuohy, treasurer.

The Shamrocks have filed an application for a franchise in the Independence League. Manager O'Connor has some promising material for the coming season in Robinson, of the Wallack A. C., and O'Neill and McCormack, of the Kendall A. C., besides his regular squad of twelve players, consisting of P. O'Dea, J. Kirshaw, J. Tuohy, T. Mayhew, B. O'Dea, D. Breen, T. Tuohy, J. Gleason, T. Breen, T. Williams, J. Fitzgerald, and J. O'Connor.

A much-heated argument was brought up before the meeting concerning the original Shamrock A. C. Manager O'Connor claims his team is the original Shamrock team and disputes the claim of any other team using that name on the ground that his team has been organized for the last eight years. The Shamrocks would like to hear from all teams in the District, Maryland, or Virginia. Address challenges to Manager John O'Connor, 26 K street northeast.

trimmings, shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley, her veil being caught up with lilies of the valley. The maid of honor, Miss Anna Gray Bogan, sister of the bride, wore yellow satin and carried white tulips. The matron of honor was Mrs. George Avery Need (formerly Miss Agnes Scudder), of New York. She wore white crepe de chine with gold trimmings, and carried yellow jonquils. The best man was Mr. Charles Merwin, brother of the bridegroom, and the ushers were Dr. Joseph Borrows Bogan, brother of the bride, Mr. William Steel Jackson, of Philadelphia; Dr. Walter Merriell, cousin of the bridegroom, and Rev. George Avery Need, of New York. Oscar Franklin Comstock, organist of Trinity Episcopal Church, played the wedding music.

After March 1 the couple will be at home at Erie, Pa., where the bridegroom has been connected with the Burke Electric Company since his graduation from Princeton.

Gen. Anson Mills entertained at dinner last evening in honor of the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the other guests being Senator Scott, Senator Culberson, Mr. Slayden, Mr. Hull, the Assistant Secretary of State, Gen. Johnston, Gen. Wilson, Gen. McCrea, Gen. Groves, Col. Garrard, Gen. Goodloe, Col. McIntyre, Mr. Patterson, Mr. H. A. Platter, Mr. W. J. Platter, and Mr. Keblinger.

Mrs. Frederick George Berger will be at home this afternoon.

Mrs. Robert Miller Reese, 1519 Twenty-eighth street, will be at home today and Thursday, February 23.

Mrs. Burrows, wife of Senator Burrows, was honor guest yesterday at the fourth in a series of "Eurasian luncheons" given by Mrs. Day, wife of Col. S. A. Day, otherwise known as Helen H. Gardener. Among the guests were Mrs. Loud, wife of Representative Loud; Mrs. Young, wife of Representative Young; Mrs. Sharp, wife of Representative Sharp, and Mrs. Wadsworth. Mrs. John S. Blair was unable to be present, owing to the sudden death of her sister-in-law.

These luncheons, although extremely simple, are so wholly out of the usual order of things and those who have gone to them express such enthusiasm that they are unique in the season's smaller entertainments. They are served on gold lacquer, some of which is 400 years old, and all of which is fascinating. The favors were magic fans and other Oriental articles that proved to be unusually interesting.

Mrs. Fowler, wife of Dr. H. A. Fowler, will be at home at the Kensington on Saturday afternoon, February 18, from 2 to 6 o'clock. She will be assisted by Miss Mary L. Kimball.

Mrs. S. Perry Lee will not be at home today, but on Thursday, February 23.

Among the boxholders and those on the reception committee at Miss Ellen Terry, at the New National Theater, are President and Mrs. Taft, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nelson Page, Mrs. Samuel Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thorpe, Miss Bessie Kibbey, Mrs. Matthew Scott, president general D. A. R., Mr. and Mrs. Ambler, Mrs. Robert Lincoln, Vice President and Mrs. Sherman, Ambassador and Mrs. Bryce, Mr. Chief Justice and Mrs. White, Mr. Justice and Mrs. Lurion, Mr. Justice and Mrs. Lamar, Mr. Justice and Mrs. Brown, Attorney General and Mrs. Wickham, Mr. Justice and Mrs. Shepard, Admiral and Mrs. Winfield Scott Schley, Admiral and Mrs. W. H. Brownson, Admiral and Mrs. P. M. Rixey, Gen. and Mrs. Leonard Wood, Mrs. John Hay, Miss Helen Cannon, Miss Mabel Boardman, Mrs. John R. McLean, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Jennings, Mr. Arthur Lee, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Finley, Mrs. Randolph McKim, Mrs. William Frank Dennis, president general U. S. C., Miss Nannie Randolph Heth, president Southern Relief, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wadsworth, Mrs. J. C. Boyd, Senator and Mrs. Robert Taylor, Representative and Mrs. Richmond Pearson Hobson, Mrs. T. De Witt Tamm, Prof. and Mrs. Samuel F. Emmons, Mrs. Fannie Ricks, Mrs. Goodloe, Mrs. Janin, Mrs. Leigh Robinson, Dr. and Mrs. Monte Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. C. David White, Mrs. Martha S. Glew, founder and vice president Southern Industrial Educational Society; Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Chasard, Mrs. J. Lewis Bell, and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Ailes.

Cards have been issued by Miss Frances Beardsley Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Clark, of the Hamilton, for a card party on Wednesday, February 22, in honor of Miss Jean Wilkie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Wilkie, whose marriage to Mr. Ira Owen, of Chicago, will take place in April.

At the Playhouse, 1514 N street northwest, on Friday afternoon, February 17, at 5 o'clock, a one-act play, "The Field Hospital," by James F. J. Archibald, will be repeated complimentary to the founders and their friends. Miss Jane Sands will play the part of Sister Agnes.

Mr. Edward H. Droop and Mr. Percy S. Foster are in Chicago attending the convention of the National Piano Manufacturers' Association of America, to be held to-day at Congress Hotel.

Every One a Winner in Its Class

Pope-Hartford, 1911
One of the very best of all high-grade cars—noted the world over for its perfect mechanism and unflinching reliability.

Matheson "Silent Six," 1911
The biggest six-cylinder value on the market. Silent to an extreme. Lightest weight for its horsepower of any car made.

Everitt "30," 1911
Without exception, the best car at its price on the market to-day. Made with all the care and skill of the highest priced cars—and sold on the smallest margin of profit.

Oakland, 1911
A moderate priced car, adapted both to city and touring use, with a range of speeds from four to sixty miles an hour.

Columbus Electric, 1911
In this handsome electric are combined features and improvements that make for comfort, convenience, and luxury in the highest degree.
